

SUMMER READING
SELECTIONS AND REQUIREMENTS FOR STUDENTS
ENTERING THIRD GRADE

- Please have your child select one read aloud book (Parents, you may read aloud to your child) afterwards complete a “Tri-Fold Board”. Select a book from the following list below to make your project.

Read Aloud Books:

- Stink and the Shark Sleepover by: Megan McDonald
- Amelia Bedelia Bookworm : by Herman Parish
- The Trumpet of the Swan: by E.B. White
- The Riddle of the Red Purse: by Giff Patricia Reilly
- Goosebumps Most Wanted: by R.L. Stine

Project Due Date ; First Day of School, August 14th, 2017

- The summary report should be handwritten neatly. The best projects are often those with bright, colored, and neat thorough illustrations, pictures, and words.
- Check out Google , Pinterest, or Reading Book Fair ideas for great examples. These should help you get a clear understanding of what a successful reading project looks like.

How to design your Tri-Fold board:

- Handwrite the story elements from you checklist.
- Be creative. Remember, props add interest but must fit in the middle of the board. No items should protrude from the back or top of the board.
- Props can be battery operated, but you cannot use electrical outlets and extension cords.
- Items cannot be alive, valuable, or dangerous.
- You do not have to display your book a copy will be sufficient.

- You must identify your project and paste it on the BACK of your tri-fold board. To identify your project you will need your name, category, grade, and homeroom teacher.
